

Licensing Information

- For all Nampa residents that have a current Canyon County license, yours will be valid until its expiration date, at which time the dog will need to be licensed in the City of Nampa.
- Licensing is an important means of identification and can help you find your pet if it becomes lost.
- Failure to license your pet may result in fines, penalties and/or citations.
- Animal licenses may be purchased by completing the license application form and mailing it, along with the license fee payment, proof of rabies vaccination and proof of spay/neuter, to the address on the application.

City Code 6-2-19(A):

“License Required: It shall be unlawful for any person to own, harbor, keep or possess a canine more than six (6) months of age within the City of Nampa without first procuring a license therefore, as provided by this section.”

This dog is happy. She got to go home when she was lost because she was wearing her Nampa City license.
