NAMPA POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE

On 03/30/12 at approximately 3:53 PM, Nampa Police responded to the 300 block of 3rd St south for a report of an attempted robbery that had just occurred. A convenience store clerk reported that a female suspect had stated she had a gun and demanded money and property. The clerk refused to give the suspect anything and she then left the store. Store employees reported the suspect returned a short time later an attempted to purchase a drink. Store employees told the suspect to leave and then followed the suspect, who was on foot, and called Nampa Police. The female was taken into custody a short time later by responding patrol units in the area of Yale and Hudson streets.
The suspect was identified as Stephanie Suzanne Allison, 44 of Nampa. Allison was charged with Burglary and Attempted Robbery and was booked into the Canyon County Jail.

18-1401. Burglary defined. Every person who enters any house, room, apartment, tenement, shop, warehouse, store, mill, barn, stable, outhouse, or other building, tent, vessel, vehicle, trailer, airplane or railroad car, with intent to commit any theft or any felony, is guilty of burglary. Burglary is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one (1) nor more than ten (10) years.

18-6501. Robbery defined. Robbery is the felonious taking of personal property in the possession of another, from his person or immediate presence, and against his will, accomplished by means of force or fear. Robbery is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not less than five (5) years, and the imprisonment may be extended to life.
